A farmer's problem was that birds built nests in his horse's mane. He was told that putting yeast in the horse's mane would blow the birds up and they would fly away, which they did.

Which all goes to prove that "Yeast is Yeast, Nest is Nest, and never the Mane shall Tweet.

HELP OUR CHAIRMEN

Our members who accept the Chairmanship of National Committees do so with the thought in mind of serving the membership in a manner better than we have been served in the past, for each revision of a rule or regulation is intended to make our organization better, stronger, or more pleasurable, so it behooves each member to help these Chairmen in any way possible. If you think the rules under which we now operate are exactly right, tell them so; If you have constructive suggestions, please do not delay, write to the chairman at once, since each chairman must have his report ready to be presented at the Membership Meeting June 13th at Grand Bahama.

The names of your chairmen follow:
